ACS Faculty Member Publishes Book on Cardinal Newman

HOW ITALY AND HER PEOPLE SHAPED CARDINAL NEWMAN

by Jo Anne Cammarata Sylva

Dr. Sylva explains how John Henry Newman allowed himself to be led into the fullness of Catholic truth by the influences of Italian Catholics such as St. Alphonsus Liguori and St. Philip Neri. Much of Newman's understanding of a Catholic sense of Tradition was formed and nurtured by the words of these and other famous Italian Catholics.

On the ACS faculty since 2006, Dr. Sylva teaches ESL 101 and is also a member of the ACS Board of Trustees.

From the President...

Dear Friends of ACS, National Catholic Colleges Week is celebrated February 21-27, a week during which all of us can be proud to be a part of the mission of Assumption College for Sisters, a unique Catholic college.

Incorporated as a separate legal entity in 1961, the college has roots in 19th century Germany with the vision of a German noble woman, Pauline von Mallinckrodt, foundress of the Sisters of Christian Charity, the congregation which sponsors the college. Her vision: that the Sisters should be well prepared, both spiritually and professionally, to spread the Kingdom of God through sound education, from which in her words, "flows the temporal and eternal welfare of the individual and of society."

As you well know, her vision has been realized in Assumption College for Sisters. Not only do we prepare the Sisters of Christian Charity for their life's work, but we educate and nurture women in religious formation in congregations in our geographic area as well as religious Sisters from congregations in developing nations. In the past several years, we have attracted lay men and women interested in pursuing a certificate in theological studies or taking courses in religion and philosophy. During this past year, we have had two young women discerning their religious vocation. All of this is done in an atmosphere conducive to fostering their spiritual development.

Graduates of Assumption College for Sisters go forth and share the knowledge and skills acquired here. They are God's hands and feet and heart for all to whom they minister. Now... that is something to celebrate!

Please join us in this celebration by your prayers and continued friendship with ACS. You will be remembered in our prayers, too.

With grateful prayer,

Sister Joseph Spring, SCC

Sister Alumnae Achieve Academic Success

After graduating from ACS with the AA degree, a group of Sister alumnae are studying at D'Youville College, Buffalo, N.Y. The Sisters, pursuing BA and in some instances, MA degrees, are studying elementary education, early childhood education, and biology. Sister Camilius, pursuing a Masters Degree in Accounting and International Business, credits ACS with her strong academic foundation. Sister Emmanuel Phan writes to us: "Although we have been far away from ACS, we believe that the professors and Sisters of Christian Charity, still support our studies through their thoughts and prayers. We do the same as we are very grateful to what we have received from ACS." We wish these Sisters and all our ACS alumnae throughout the world great success and God's blessing.

song and dance in Zulu, "We Come as We Are", taught by two students from South Africa. The singing was accompanied by Sisters playing drums and a kayamba.

All participated!
