History

Identity Emerges from Roots

The year 2003 marked the fiftieth anniversary of Assumption College for Sisters as an incorporated and licensed organization. Comparatively young among institutions of higher learning, the College has roots that reach back over a century and a half to a wise, saintly woman, Blessed Pauline von Mallinckrodt. Only four years after founding the Sisters of Christian Charity, the congregation which owns and operates the College, she established a Normal School for teachers in 1853 within the motherhouse in Paderborn, Germany.

Convinced of the surpassing value of the ministry of education, Mother Pauline required her young Sisters to become as qualified professionally as their contemporary lay counterparts. Simultaneously intent on their religious formation, she provided for an integrated program of spiritual, intellectual, and cultural development.

Pressing challenges abounded, but the clarity of the vision of the Foundress remained unclouded. Her new community flourished; however, twenty years after its inception Germany experienced the “Kulturkampf” under Chancellor Otto von Bismarck. Forced to choose between either secularization or the loss of nearly twenty institutions, Mother Pauline, faithful and insightful, accepted the latter. With unwavering trust in Divine Providence, she responded to the needs of the Church across the sea in the Americas.

Her congregation, suppressed in its native land, attracted many young women in the New World where it took firm root. Hardships were numerous, but the Foundress retained her commitment to a holistic education of the young Sisters. Already in 1873 the new motherhouse in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, housed the Mallinckrodt Normal School, affiliated with the Bloomsburg Normal School (today Bloomsburg University).

The Normal School, transferred with the motherhouse to Wilmette, Illinois, developed into an accredited two-year college in 1923. When rapid growth of the Sisters of Christian Charity in North America resulted in the creation of the Eastern Province, God led them to scenic Mendham, New Jersey, where they established a second motherhouse. Faithful to the spirit of the Foundress, superiors immediately integrated the academic development of the young postulants and novices with their religious formation. Seton Hall College (now University) allowed the Sisters to function as an extension of its institution, a situation which continued until 1953.

Incorporation of Assumption

Encouraged by Seton Hall, the Society of the Sisters of Christian Charity of New Jersey, under provision of its charter of incorporation, replaced the extension with Assumption Junior College, approved by the State in 1953. In 1961 this institution, newly entitled Assumption College for Sisters, was incorporated as a separate legal entity, authorized to confer appropriate academic degrees on women religious and those in the program of religious formation. The College remains the embodiment of the heritage received from Blessed Pauline von Mallinckrodt. It witnesses to her conviction that the Sisters should be well prepared, both spiritually and professionally, to spread the Kingdom of God through sound education, from which, in her words, “flows the temporal and eternal welfare of the individual and of society.

Licensing, Accreditation, and Memberships

Assumption College for Sisters is licensed by the Commission on Higher Education of the State of New Jersey and accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA, 19104, (267) 284-5000. The College earned its initial accreditation in 1965 and reaffirmation of accreditation in 1975, 1985, 1995, and 2005.

The College is a member of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, and the National Catholic College Admission Association. It is an approved member of the Student and Exchange Visitor System (SEVIS) of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

Faculty members belong to associations and organizations relevant to their disciplines.

Mission Statement

Assumption College for Sisters exists primarily to educate women called to a life of consecration to God and of service in the Roman Catholic Church.

It provides a value-centered, two-year program in theology and the liberal arts. The College welcomes women religious of any racial or ethnic background. In addition, any woman who is seriously discerning religious life and is recommended by a vocation director or spiritual director may also enroll, though she is not yet part of a religious community or a formal formation program.

Sponsored by the Sisters of Christian Charity, an international religious congregation, the College has a character animated by the spirit of Jesus Christ, rooted in its Catholic identity, and committed to sound academic development. The intercommunity, international, multicultural dimensions at ACS generate a global spirit of community among faculty and students. Assumption values reverence for the dignity of each person and a commitment to integrity, peace, justice, and service. This positive and inclusive atmosphere helps religious build a firm foundation in truth and charity.

In recent years, ACS has welcomed an increasing number of women religious from Africa and Vietnam as full-time, resident students. Although the Sisters of Christian Charity had been accustomed to sponsoring a few international students periodically since 1968, the recent increase in students from developing nations represents a new direction in the College's mission of educating women religious.

Assumption College for Sisters welcomes lay persons to earn credits in theology and philosophy courses and to pursue the Certificate in Theological Studies. They are invited to audit any course and to attend workshops. Their presence is mutually beneficial to all members of the College community. By opening its doors to them, ACS deepens its commitment to the education of those who serve the Church through ministry.

Goals

The goals and objectives of Assumption College for Sisters clearly support its unique mission while retaining the expectations and aspirations of higher education.

Integrated Religious Formation

Throughout its history, Assumption College for Sisters has consistently maintained its focus and distinctive mission of educating women religious. By providing sound theology and philosophy courses in an atmosphere of integrity and shared vision, the administration and faculty strive to enhance the religious formation of the students within the context of their own distinctive community charisms. An integrated religious formation is fostered by:

- the development of a sound liberal arts curriculum in which theology and philosophy have priority;
- the atmosphere of academic freedom supporting vigorous pursuit of truth;
- holistic education incorporating a learning-oriented environment, development of academic skills, and opportunities for cultural enrichment.

Leadership

ACS strives to form women who will be a light for the world and a leaven in society. Whatever form their service may take, Assumption's students need to be prepared to assume the responsibility of Christian leadership and the commitment to bring, through countercultural witness, the Gospel message to God's people. The College aims to instill qualities of leadership in its students by assisting them to develop:

- the ability to think logically and communicate effectively;
- skills for discernment;
- techniques of collaboration;
- responsibility for initiating and completing group projects.

Service

Service, central to Christian discipleship, is an essential aspect of ACS. Students are expected to avail themselves of opportunities to prepare for a life of service in the Church. At the College service may take the following forms:

- responding to College and Motherhouse hospitality needs and offering service to Villa Pauline and the Quellen Spiritual Center;
- various needs of inculturation, especially peer tutoring;
- work scholarships;
- attendance and work at college- and community-sponsored events.

Community

Community, founded on service and respect for each person's dignity, ranks among Assumption's most cherished values. Intrinsic to its heritage, the College strives to further the vision of Blessed Pauline and the spirit of Christian Charity she imparted to her Sisters. Authentic community at ACS is evidenced by:

- common vision and mission-centeredness;
- collegiality demonstrated through shared decision-making;
- cooperative support in college projects;
- knowledge and appreciation of each community's heritage and culture;
- incorporation of student languages and customs in liturgy and other celebrations.

Social Justice

Growing out of a firm belief in the dignity of each person, faculty and students at ACS strive to see the face of Jesus in all. They seek ways to embrace the poor and eliminate systems of oppression worldwide. A lively sense of social justice is encouraged through:

- deepening an individual and corporate consciousness of global women's issues;

- fostering an all-encompassing attitude of reconciliation;
- practical training and work among the poor when possible;
- specific education in social justice issues faced by the students' communities in their homelands;
- ongoing enabling of students to assist women and children in need, especially as international students return to their native lands.

Campus

Facilities

Assumption College for Sisters is located within Mallinckrodt Convent, which serves as the motherhouse of the North American Eastern Province of the Sisters of Christian Charity. The 112-acre scenic property, owned by this religious community, provides a serene and spacious campus, ideal for recreational activities as well as for prayer and reflection. Also available to the students for quiet moments with God is the large, beautiful motherhouse chapel.

College space includes a student center, classrooms, a science laboratory, library rooms, a computer laboratory, offices for administrators and faculty, and the use of an auditorium.

Off-Campus Resources

Conveniently located in a facility about fifty miles from New York City and about twice that distance from Philadelphia, ACS faculty members enrich themselves and their students through visits to museums and attendance at conventions, workshops, and lectures. Administrative collaboration with neighboring colleges allows students to take advantage of resources and cultural enrichment not available at ACS.

Admission Policies

Eligibility

Any woman who has been accepted for membership by a Catholic religious community can apply for admission to Assumption College for Sisters, regardless of race, color, or national origin. Women who are in a serious discernment process, with the recommendation of a vocation or spiritual director, may also apply, though they are not yet part of a formation program. Lay persons may register for theology and philosophy courses and may audit any other courses.

Procedures for Admission

All Students

The prospective student will submit to the registrar her completed application form, a transcript of all high school work, a college transcript if she has taken college courses, and the immunization records (MMR) required by the State of New Jersey. A student born prior to 1957 is exempt from the immunization requirement. Resident international students follow a more detailed policy for admission.

Resident International Students

Assumption College for Sisters is authorized under Federal law to enroll nonimmigrant students. International Sisters are required to have a high school diploma or its equivalent in order to apply. They should also have at least a beginner's knowledge of English, which will be supplemented while in residence at ACS. Perpetually professed members of religious communities from developing countries may apply for full scholarships to ACS and reside at the College. The following procedures must be followed:

- The Superior General or Provincial Superior of the sending community requests a scholarship for a particular Sister of her community, giving some background about the works of the community and reasons for the request.

- An ACS administrator sends the application and medical forms to be completed and returned with the Sister's official school transcripts, along with a notarized translation if transcripts are not in English.
- The College administration carefully reviews the completed forms when they are received. Upon approval, the Sister is officially registered with the Department of Homeland Security's Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS) and the I-20 form is issued for a student visa.
- The College is given advance notice of the date of arrival at Newark Liberty International Airport.
- The respective community is responsible for making and paying for travel arrangements, paying expenses incurred for health care, and paying incidental expenses not covered by the Sister's scholarship.
- The respective community is responsible for reimbursing ACS for the SEVIS I-901 fee.
- The respective community assumes the entire responsibility for application to other institutions after graduation from ACS, as well as for arranging for travel and board elsewhere.

Transfer of Credits

The Academic Dean evaluates college transcripts to determine which courses may be accepted toward a degree from ACS. To qualify, courses must fulfill the degree requirements of this College and rate a minimum grade of C. A World Educational Services evaluation is required for transcripts from colleges outside the United States.

Advanced Placement and Dual-Credit Courses

ACS gives college credit to students who have received a rating of three in an Advanced Placement Test. It also honors high school dual-credit courses when applicable.

Auditing Classes

With the approval of the Academic Dean, anyone interested may audit classes. Half tuition is charged for those who audit a complete course.

Classification of Students

Matriculated: Full or part-time students pursuing a program of studies leading to an Associate Degree or a Certificate in Theological Studies.

Full-time: Students carrying 9 or more credit hours in a semester.

Part-time: Students carrying fewer than 9 credit hours in a semester.

Probation, Withdrawal

Any student pursuing a degree who fails to maintain a C average or a GPA of 2.0 will be placed on probation and will receive a lightened course load. She will receive tutoring and counseling to improve her study habits. When improvement is shown, she will be removed from probation.

A student will be asked to withdraw from the College for the following reasons:

- Termination of membership in her religious community;
- Conduct that fails to harmonize with the philosophy and moral standards of the College;
- Continued inferior academic work.

Tuition

The greater part of the financial cost of operating Assumption College for Sisters is assumed by the Sisters of Christian Charity, who contribute the services of the administrators and the majority of the faculty. Tuition is $150 per credit. Tuition and fees are subject to change.

Since the College confers degrees only upon women religious and those discerning religious life, ACS cannot depend on its alumnae for direct financial support. To balance its budget, the College relies on the contributions of devoted friends and the regular fund raising activities conducted by the College.

To secure the future of its mission, Assumption College for Sisters has initiated an Endowment Fund. ACS invites individuals and corporations to share in its ministry of preparing women religious for a life of consecrated service through their charitable donations. All contributions are tax-deductible.

Scholarships

A recipient of a scholarship must be a member of a religious community, enrolled in a program leading either to a degree or to a Certificate in Theological Studies on a full-time basis. Scholarships are renewable, provided the recipient maintains the required cumulative grade-point average. These awards, made by the College administration, are based on such factors as scholastic ability, potential for service, and need. Perpetually professed members of religious communities from developing nations may apply for scholarships to ACS and may reside at the College. Special guidelines for international students are outlined in the "Admissions" section of this Bulletin.

Veterans Educational Assistance

Various types of federal assistance are offered. These grants are available to veterans, widows of veterans, and children of disabled or deceased veterans. Qualified persons should contact the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Assumption College for Sisters accepts no other financial aid from either the federal or the state government.

Fees for Application and Transcripts

The College charges a non-refundable $50 fee to help defray the cost of application, testing, library usage, and laboratory expenses.

All requests for transcripts must be made in writing so that a signature is on file for release of records. Requests are made to the Registrar's office. A Transcript Request Form may be downloaded from our website or obtained from the Registrar via e-mail. Requests for transcripts must be accompanied by a payment of $5.00 per copy for an official transcript or $1.00 per copy for an unofficial transcript.

Student Body

The students at ACS exemplify the beauty of unity in diversity. These women, united in their aspirations to live a life of holiness as religious consecrated to God in the service of his people, are diverse in background, experience, nationality, race, and the charism of their specific communities.

The presence of lay students in classes is another source of diversity which strengthens the unity of the College. The witness of their deep faith and the sharing of experiences inspire both students and faculty.

The students' well-balanced life of prayer, study, work, and recreation in community accounts for their goal-centered and characteristically joyful approach to life. Years of experience evidence the supportive influence of the liberal arts curriculum, with theology and philosophy as its crux, on the broader program of the Sister-student's religious formation. Therefore, studies form an integral part of her daily life.

A student's credit load harmonizes with her stage of religious formation as required in her particular community. Some students carry only one or two courses a semester, because superiors have assigned them to participate in their community's active ministry. This arrangement delays academic progress but compensates by providing opportunities for service in the Church through participation in the various community apostolates.

During their period of initial formation, students gain experience in the ministries of their respective communities. Such occasions offer them many opportunities to share their faith with children in local parishes, to participate actively in youth ministry, to serve the handicapped, to visit the elderly and the imprisoned, or to observe and assist professionals in the ministries of education and health care.

Student Services

Student Assistance

Students have ready access to academic guidance through the Academic Dean or faculty members. Small classes allow course instructors to recognize individual needs and to provide help. The Academic Dean meets with students as needed to discuss their progress and to offer assistance. The Dean of Students is available for assistance beyond the academic realm, including needs of daily living, health care, and transportation.

Placement Tests

Upon admission, all full-time international students are required to take the ACCUPLACER tests to aid in making placement decisions, especially for determining the necessity of ESL courses. These tests are also administered to other students when deemed necessary by the Academic Dean.

Learning Resources

The College holds membership in the Virtual Academic Library Environment (VALE), a consortium of academic libraries in the State of New Jersey. Through VALE, faculty and students are able to access numerous journals and professional periodicals via the EBSCO Host Research Databases. The College is also a member of the Library Link NJ (New Jersey Library Cooperative) a non-profit, multi-type cooperative sharing resources, services, and expertise among libraries in Northern New Jersey.

The automated library provides access to its holdings and to the Internet, which is accessible on the computers in the library and in the computer laboratory. Full-time students are taught the basics of Internet searching and bibliographic citation, evaluating information obtained from the Internet, and copyright and plagiarism policies. Students are taught how to use the library automation program to access the materials in the ACS library and in other libraries, and how to use the reference materials available at ACS and on the Internet.

Hospitality

Assumption College for Sisters is housed within the Motherhouse of the Sisters of Christian Charity and shares facilities with the Quellen Spiritual Center, the SCC Motherhouse community, Provincialate, Formation Ministry, and Development Office. The overlapping of facilities and personnel, as well as the close proximity of the community of Sisters, contributes to a spirit of mutual hospitality. College students and faculty benefit from the welcoming atmosphere of the Motherhouse and in turn generate a spirit of youthfulness, energy, and service to the resident Sisters and visitors.

Cultural Enrichment

The College and the students' respective religious communities provide experiences enhancing the liberal arts courses and preparing students for their ministries. ACS sponsors lectures, conferences, workshops, and dramas to augment the students' appreciation of culture. Occasional field trips for faculty and students enrich classroom presentations. Instructors also enhance their classes through creative assignments, participation in local workshops, and similar activities.

Health

Completed health forms are required before admission, as stated in the "Admissions" section of this Bulletin. A registered nurse resides at the College and is available as needed.

Student Handbook

Students are responsible for reading the Student Handbook which they receive at registration, becoming familiar with its contents, and abiding by its regulations.

Orientation

The initial program of orientation, introducing students to the unique nature of Assumption College for Sisters, takes place shortly before the opening of the fall semester. Students receive a copy of the College Bulletin and the Student Handbook during the orientation program, as well as the opportunity to become acquainted with the faculty, administrators, and other students.

The Academic Dean/Registrar is available to any student who needs to complete the process of registration or to ask questions concerning her schedule.

The initial orientation to the library begins at this time and continues at a later date as described in the “Student Life” section of this Bulletin.

Academic Information

A basic education in the liberal arts prepares the student not only for the pursuit of higher studies and specialization, but also for life. The College awards two degrees: the Associate in Arts and the Associate in Religious Arts. Students can also earn a Certificate in Theological Studies.

Requirements for Associate Degrees

To receive the degree of Associate in Arts (AA) a student must earn 66 credits with a minimum average of C or a 2.0 grade-point average (GPA). The degree of Associate in Religious Arts (ARA) requires 60 credits. In either case, at least half the credits must be obtained at Assumption College for Sisters.

Earning Two Associate Degrees

A student with an Associate in Arts degree can also receive the Associate in Religious Arts degree if she earns a total of 24 credits in theology. The student with an ARA must complete the specific requirements for the AA to be eligible for this second degree.

Certificate in Theological Studies

The College awards the Certificate in Theological Studies to a student who has earned a total of 30 credits in theology and philosophy, including a minimum of 18 credits in theology and 6 in philosophy.

Adjusted Requirements

To meet the specific needs of individual students, degree requirements may be adjusted with the approval of the Academic Dean.

Unit of Credit

A college credit is a quantitative measure representing 15 fifty-minute class periods or their equivalent. Therefore each 3-credit course totals 45 semester credit hours or the equivalent.

Examinations and Grades

The academic calendar indicates the times for the required written examinations, administered at the midterm and at the close of the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Examination schedules, posted in advance, may be changed only with the permission of the Academic Dean.

Academic grades for all credit courses are issued at the conclusion of each semester and of the summer session.

Grading System and Quality Points

Scholastic achievement, reported in letter grades and in quality points, summarizes the student’s comprehension of subject matter and reflects the student’s diligence, thoroughness, and initiative. Grades are based on fulfillment of course requirements, participation in class, and results of examinations. The quality of a student’s work is indicated as follows:

Grade	Quality Points	Interpretation
A	4.0	Comprehends course content remarkably well; Exhibits logical and critical thinking; Communicates clearly and coherently in both oral and written expression.
A-	3.8	Evidences clear understanding of course content; Submits high quality work in fulfilling course requirements; Demonstrates ability to generalize, apply, and communicate what is learned.
B+	3.5	Understands and communicates course content clearly; Participates actively in class; Completes assignments thoroughly and conscientiously.
B	3.2	Comprehends course content well; Fulfills requirements punctually and completely; Participates in class.
B-	2.9	Understands course content well; Evidences effort in striving toward constant improvement; Fulfills course requirements.
C+	2.5	Comprehends most of the subject matter; Communicates basic concepts intelligently; Fulfills course requirements satisfactorily.
C	2.0	Comprehends the essentials of the course; Communicates basic concepts; Meets course requirements.
C-	1.5	Passing; Reflects a limited understanding of course content; Fulfills requirements of the course.
D	1.0	Passing, but deficient; Reflects a limited, unsatisfactory understanding of course content; Fulfills minimum requirements of the course.

Grade	Quality Points	Interpretation
F	0.0	Failing; Exhibits extensive deficiency in understanding course content; Requires repetition of the course to receive credit.
I	0.0	Incomplete; Indicates failure to complete course requirements due to illness or some other reasonable cause; Course requirements must be completed within six weeks after the start of the following major academic semester (fall or spring).
FI	0.0	Failure resulting from an Incomplete; Indicates failure to complete course requirements within six weeks after the start of the following major academic semester (fall or spring).
WP	0.0	Withdrew Passing; Designates approved withdrawal from the course.

🌀 Curriculum 🌀

The liberal arts curriculum provides the principal vehicle of academic instruction at Assumption College for Sisters. Approved by the Commission on Higher Education of the State of New Jersey, the curriculum gives priority to theology and philosophy.

The curriculum at Assumption College for Sisters is designed to reflect a global perspective that incorporates an awareness of and respect for the viewpoints, cultures, and customs of all peoples. Through the teaching and study of the contributions of the world community to humankind, we seek to broaden our horizons by realizing our connectedness as individuals of dignity and worth whose common needs call us to continue to strive for the peace and justice of Gospel teaching.

Curricular Divisions

The courses of the liberal arts curriculum are categorized in four divisions as follows:

Course Descriptions

Division of Humanities

The division of humanities introduces students to the human heritage, awakening in them an understanding and appreciation of the contributions of the human race. It brings into focus the intrinsic unity and universality of all people, sharing the creativity, richness, and embrace of God.

English

The courses in English have been selected to inculcate a love for the English language, the ability to speak correctly, and the power to write clearly and stylistically. Students will read in order to interpret and evaluate effectively; they will strive to understand the inherent merits of literary masterpieces through reading and writing critically about classics of various cultures and historic periods.

En 101 College English I

3 credits

This course is designed to present a review of grammar and to develop skills in writing, reading, and critical thinking. Students write essays with a purpose for a special audience, developing skills in expository, descriptive, narrative, and argumentative techniques.

En 102 College English II3 credits

This course introduces students to the process of writing a research paper by using a systematic procedure for gathering, evaluating, and synthesizing information according to the format of The Modern Language Association. Throughout the process students continue to develop the skills of reading, critical thinking, and writing.

En 103 Fundamentals of Public Speaking3 credits

In this course students learn and practice the listening and speaking skills necessary for success in their college courses. They work and participate in class discussions and deliver oral presentations. They also learn and practice effective public, productive use of voice and diction.

En 104 Introduction to World Literature3 credits

This course studies representative literary works from Western and non-Western traditions. A range of genres including, among others, drama, short story, novel and poetry, are presented with a view to consideration of their human, literary, and cultural significance.

En 203 Special Topics in English3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of English staff and visiting instructors.

English as a Second Language

The primary purpose of the courses in English as a Second Language is to prepare students to mainstream into academic work. These courses are designed to help students master the English language skills necessary for success in college-level study.

ESL 101 ESL Fundamentalsnc

This beginning level course is designed to immerse students in the experience of living in the United States. With an emphasis on enhancing conversational skills, study will include an examination of American history, culture, and traditions.

ESL 102 Introductory Writing3 credits

This course is designed to teach beginning-level ESL students how to use given information to compose correct English sentences and then to organize these sentences into paragraphs. The Rosetta Stone® Program is utilized for practice in speaking and for developing vocabulary, grammar, and writing skills.

ESL 103 Introductory Reading3 credits

This basic course in reading aims to help students build reading skills such as: word recognition, phrases, main ideas, context study, summarizing, and making inferences. This course emphasizes the importance of phonics in learning to read and comprehend the English language.

ESL 104 Intermediate Writing3 credits

This course reinforces the essentials of grammar and sentence structure, builds vocabulary, and integrates grammar instruction with writing practice. Students learn how to write effective, meaningful compositions. The computer-based programs are continued in this course.

ESL 105 Intermediate Reading3 credits

This course stresses comprehension skills and vocabulary building. Students practice oral and silent reading. They are introduced to a variety of simple English genre.

ESL 106 Advanced Writing3 credits

This course focuses on grammar skills, correct usage, sentence structure, mechanics, correct spelling, and ability to engage in critical expression. Students develop the ability to write academic and coherent paragraphs and compositions.

ESL 107 Advanced Reading3 credits

In this course students aim for mastery of skills needed for academic study: pre-reading, comprehension, understanding contextual critical reading through story clues, recognizing inferences, and parallels in literary works.

This course is designed as a tutorial to enable students to improve their communication skills. The intent is to identify and address still-existing problem areas so that students may be better supported in the academic requirements of their other courses. According to student needs, instruction may be large group, small group, or one-on-one.

Fine Arts

The courses in fine arts guide students toward an understanding and enjoyment of the artistic, and an awareness and appreciation of the human values expressed in artistic masterpieces of world cultures.

FA 101 Fine Arts Appreciation

3 credits

This course is a general introduction to the arts. The presentation of basic elements, concepts, forms, and techniques provides students with understanding, literacy, and appreciation of the arts that is strengthened by student participation. Three of the following specific aspects of art are presented: ceramics, dance, drawing, theater, and world music. Any one of these may be taken separately for one credit.

Ar 101 Art History and Appreciation

3 credits

This general survey of the development of visual arts extends from pre-historic to modern times. The course demonstrates how art has changed over time and its impact on society.

Ar 201 Special Topics in Art

3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of Art staff and visiting instructors.

Mu 101 Fundamentals of Music

3 credits

After acquiring a firm foundation in music theory, students in this course explore the opportunities for its application through the use of musical media.

Mu 201 Special Topics in Music

3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of Music staff and visiting instructors.

History

Through the study of history, students develop an appreciation of the people, events, thought processes, and cultures that have shaped the world to the present time. This knowledge will enable them to evaluate the present, view it as part of the movement of humanity through time, and be prepared to contribute to the shaping of the future.

Hi 098 Cultural Foundation

nc

This course helps students to gain a foundation in the history and geography of the world by acquiring an understanding of vocabulary and experience of world societies and culture. Basic map skills, readings, visual presentations, lectures, and experiences provide students with the background necessary for college-level history studies.

Hi 101 World Civilization I

3 credits

This course surveys the history of humankind from the earliest records to the 14th/15th Centuries. It includes the major ancient civilizations of the world through the end of the Middle Ages in Europe. This study should deepen within students the concept of events taking place in time and space and heighten their awareness that civilizations include all aspects of humanity (art, architecture, literature, lifestyle, education, religion).

Hi 102 World Civilization II

3 credits

This course continues the same concepts as Hi 101. The time period studied follows from the 15th Century to the present. Special emphasis is given to the growth of democracy, nationalism, imperialism, intellectual and cultural development, and international relationships.

Hi 201 The Church: Its Nature and History 3 credits

This course is a survey of the theology and history of the Church from the Apostolic Period to the 21st century, including doctrinal, institutional, and spiritual developments, and the significance of Vatican Council II on contemporary Christianity. See also Th 201.

Hi 202 Special Topics in History 3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of History staff and visiting instructors.

Division of Natural Science and Mathematics

The division of natural science and mathematics aims to lead students to acquire not only the concepts basic to the structure of the science and mathematics courses but also an effective reverence for truth, a wholesome spirit of inquiry, a degree of scientific literacy, and a sense of responsibility for the wise and intelligent use of world resources.

Natural Science

The courses in natural science aim to give students a knowledge of the fundamentals of biology and chemistry as part of their liberal education.

Sc 101 Introduction to Chemistry 4 credits

In this course students are introduced to the principles of chemistry. The course includes units of measurement, atomic structure, chemical formulas, chemical equations, chemical bonding, molecular structure, the periodic law, acids and bases, states of matter, and some organic chemistry and nuclear chemistry. Special topics of current interest will be included as time permits. Selected qualitative and quantitative laboratory experiments and demonstrations will be used to illustrate the principles covered in the lectures.

Sc 102 Introduction to Biology 4 credits

This course introduces concepts that contribute to the understanding of the nature of life and its cellular and chemical bases. It provides a clear, basic, practical understanding of the living world through lecture, discussion, laboratory experience, and audiovisual presentations.

Sc 204 Special Topics in Natural Science 3 or 4 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of Natural Science staff and visiting instructors.

Mathematics

The courses in mathematics aim to develop the students' ability to think logically, analytically, and objectively, while imparting a basic knowledge of the fundamental concepts of mathematics.

Mt 098 Basic Mathematics nc

Developmental in nature, this comprehensive course provides the necessary background and review of whole numbers, fractions, decimals, ratio and proportion, as well as an introduction to algebra and geometry.

Mt 101 Introductory College Algebra 3 credits

In this course students are introduced to the structure and properties of real numbers and related operations. Included are solutions to linear equations, exponents, polynomials, factoring, rational expressions, and, to a limited degree, graphing. Emphasis will be placed on real life applications of the principles learned.

Mt 102 College Algebra 3 credits

This course is an overview of the fundamental concepts of algebra. Topics include the structure and properties of real numbers, linear and quadratic equations and inequalities, the Cartesian plane and graphing, polynomial and rational functions, exponential and logarithmic function, and conic sections.

Division of Theology and Philosophy

Theology and philosophy are the integrating force of the curriculum, offering an insight into the relationship between unity and truth. They direct the student toward a clearer knowledge of the Catholic faith and an appreciation of its intelligibility.

Theology

The courses in theology offer students the opportunity to explore religious truth and faith response, especially as embodied in the Catholic faith. Students are invited to discover the significance of Divine Revelation in shaping a theological understanding of the ultimate questions. Through the study of theology, students strengthen their desire to give themselves to the service of God in the Church.

Th 098 Fundamentals of the Catholic Faith nc

This course offers a simple, but thorough, overview of the Catholic faith through consideration of major theological topics from the viewpoint of Scripture, Tradition, the teaching of the magisterium, and the experience of the faithful.

Th 101 Sacred Scripture I 3 credits

This course traces the self-disclosure of God in the Scriptures shared by the Jewish and Christian communities through an examination of selected books from the Old Testament. It presents an overview of the background, formation, methods of interpretation and message of the various types of Old Testament writings. Through this study, students will encounter the God whose love is revealed in word and deed and who calls forth the response of faith and personal commitment.

Th 102 Sacred Scripture II 3 credits

In this course students will encounter the person and message of Jesus Christ, the Word of God, who became one of us and lives among us. It focuses on the study of and reflection on the four Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, selected Letters, and the Book of Revelation. Students will become acquainted with background, formation and contemporary approaches to New Testament scholarship, in order to better understand the message being proclaimed by the biblical authors and relate it to their personal lives.

Th 103 Letters of Saint Paul 3 credits

This course presents the proclamation of the Christian message found in the writings of Paul, the Apostle of Jesus. Consideration will be given to the problems regarding the authenticity of St. Paul's letters and to the messages of Paul's writings for the early Christian communities and for Christian communities today.

Th 104 Methods of Catholic Catechesis 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic principles of Catholic religious education and catechetical teaching. The course presents the basic catechetical documents of the Church, and includes both content and methodology. It includes a practicum which enables the students to apply the principles and methods they are learning in actual catechetical teaching to children and teenagers.

Th 201 The Church: Its Nature and History 3 credits

This course is a survey of the theology and history of the Church from the Apostolic Period to the 21st century, including doctrinal, institutional, and spiritual developments, and the significance of Vatican Council II on contemporary Christianity. See also Hi 201.

Th 202 Sacramental Theology 3 credits

This course is an in-depth study of the scriptural, theological, and historical dimensions of the seven sacraments, including the rite and celebration of each sacrament. It draws upon patristic, medieval, and modern theologians to uncover the fundamental principles of sacramental theology. The nature of sacramental symbol and sacramental grace are examined in the context of a Trinitarian, Christological, and ecclesial framework. Particular attention is paid to the renewed understanding of the role sacraments play in our ongoing spiritual growth.

Th 203 Fundamental Moral Theology 3 credits

Based on fundamental scriptural, philosophical and theological principles, this course treats such topics as the human person, natural law, conscience, the principle of double effect, freedom, sin, and the response to God's love. Contemporary moral issues are evaluated in light of these principles and of magisterial teachings. Students are helped to see moral decision making in its relationship to the life of faith and to their baptismal commitment as followers of Jesus Christ.

Th 204 Spiritual Theology 3 credits

A study of the spiritual life, this course is a biblical and theological presentation of the activity of the Holy Spirit in the life of the person striving for holiness. The course explores such topics as: the universal call to holiness, the role of the Spirit in the life of believers, grace, virtue, the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit and the journey of conversion. It also provides a survey of the various spiritual traditions of the past and present that enrich the life of the Church.

Th 205 Mystery of God 3 credits

This course focuses on the Mystery of God and ways in which people have reflected on, expressed, and responded to this mystery. It is a study of the biblical, historical, and contemporary formulations of the nature and activity of God. Areas of study include: The God of the Scriptures, the development of Trinitarian doctrine, theism and atheism, experience and knowledge of God, religious language, and the problem of evil. Students will also explore contemporary issues surrounding the mystery of the Triune God, and new approaches to pastoral practice.

Th 207 Mary in the Scriptures3 credits

This course invites the students to explore the figure of Mary of Nazareth as she comes across to us through the Scriptures. Students are introduced to the events where Mary appears in the New Testament writings and the connections with the Old Testament “types” of Mary. Through this study, they are brought to a deeper understanding of Mary’s role in the history of salvation and of her place in the Church as the first and most faithful disciple of Jesus, our companion in our own faith journey.

Th 208 Special Topics in Theology3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by the needs and interests of students and that of Theology staff and visiting instructors.

Philosophy

Inherent in the rational and humanistic core of the Catholic faith, the philosophy offered at ACS seeks to develop students’ potential for critical intellectual skills necessary in all academic fields, to discover and examine assumptions, to recognize various approaches to reality, to appreciate the dignity of the human person and to find deeper meaning in existence and the moral life.

Ph 101 Introduction to Logic3 credits

This course aims to increase the students’ ability to understand, analyze, evaluate, and construct arguments. It is a mix of traditional logic, informal logic and modern symbolic logic. This approach offers the students the advantage of both manipulating symbols together with the ability of applying logic to English arguments.

Ph 203 Philosophy of the Human Person 3 credits

This course offers students a deeper understanding of the human person through a philosophical analysis of human nature. Students probe activities specific to the human person, such as understanding, choice, emotion, and the acquisition of habits.

Ph 205 Historical Introduction to Philosophy 3 credits

This course surveys the history of philosophy from the pre-Socratics to the modern era. It challenges students to accept critically the principal contributions of the major philosophers and to recognize the interplay of insights into the nature of reality.

Ph 207 Special Topics in Philosophy 3 credits

This course allows for a study of specific issues as determined by needs and interests of students and that of Philosophy staff and visiting instructors.

Directions to Assumption College for Sisters 350 Bernardsville Road, Mendham, NJ 07945

I. Coming from the West on Route 80 East:

Follow Route 80 East to the exit for Route 206 South toward Somerville. Continue on Route 206 South to Chester. At the light in Chester, make a sharp left onto Route 24 East (also called Route 513). Route 24 turns right at the next light (Immediate Care Center on corner). At the light in Mendham, turn right onto Hilltop Road (County Rt. 525). The campus is on the left about 1.5 miles from the light. Entrance to the property is marked with a sign, "SISTERS OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY." Because this is a steep hill, in inclement weather continue along Hilltop Road to the second entrance, also on the left.

II. Coming from the West on Route 78 East:

Follow Route 78 East to the exit for Route 287 North toward Morristown. Take exit 26B for Bernardsville/Mt. Airy Road. At the end of the ramp continue to the right. This will be County Rt. 525 North. Just before the traffic light bear right to continue on Route 525 North. *Follow this route into the center of Bernardsville (about 2 miles). After you pass through the center of town, continue straight on Route 525 North for about 3 miles. (The road name changes a few times (Mendham Road, Anderson Road, Bernardsville Road), but it is still Route 525 North.) The entrance to the property is on the right, marked with a sign, "SISTERS OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY."

III. Coming from the East on Route 80 West:

Follow Route 80 West to Route 287 South. Take exit 30B, Bernardsville. At the end of the ramp, go straight to the light. Turn left onto Route 202 South. At the center of Bernardsville, a few miles along Route 202 South, a flagpole stands at the center of a triangle. Bear right onto County Route 525 North, also known as Anderson Road. Continue for about 3 miles. The entrance to the property is on the right, marked with a sign, "SISTERS OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY."

IV. Coming from the East on Route 78 West:

Follow Route 78 West to Exit 33 - Bernardsville/Martinsville. Make a right onto County Route 525 North. Continue on 525 North past the ramps for Route 287. Just before the traffic light bear right to continue on Route 525 North. Continue with II (*) on page 46.

V. Coming from the South:

Follow route 202, 206, NJ Turnpike or Garden State Parkway to Route 287 North. Continue on Route 287 North to exit 26B for Bernardsville/Mt. Airy Road. At the end of the ramp continue to the right. This will be County Rt. 525. Just before the traffic light bear right to continue on Route 525 North. Continue with II (*) on page 46.

By Train:

NJ Transit from Hoboken, Newark, or other New Jersey points to Morristown or Bernardsville. Then by taxi to Assumption College for Sisters.

By Bus:

Lakeland Bus from Port Authority to Morristown or Bernardsville; then by taxi to Assumption College for Sisters.

By Taxi:

Taxi headquarters in Mendham: Village Taxi Service: 973-543-9550. It is advisable, especially when traveling from Bernardsville, to call the taxi company a day in advance to make reservations.
