Accredited by Middle States Commission on Higher Education

Fall 2022 Wednesday Night Lecture Series: Contemporary Issues in Theology

Remote Live: Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00pm

Date	Presenter	Topic
9/14	Sister Theresa Kelly, FMA	“A Renewed Catechesis for the New Evangelization” (New Directory for Catechesis) This presentation will be an introduction to the Directory for Catechesis published by the Vatican in June, 2020. It will be an overview of the background, basic principles, and new insights into the development and current understanding and practice of the ministry of catechesis in the Church today.
10/12	Deacon Russ and Marie Raffay	The Sandwich Generation: An Open and Honest Discussion on Balancing Life, Kids, Work, and Religion As life expectancy soars, we are faced with multiple dilemmas resulting from a seemingly good thing: How to cope with the increase in age, health care costs, and living with elderly parents. Join us as we discuss the good, the bad, and the ugly of the sandwich generation and how to get a head start, or any start, navigating these years. Topics to be discussed will be life expectancy, health care issues, increased schedule demands on parents, maintaining a valuable lifestyle, respecting the quality of life, and the role that religion plays in figuring out your new life.
11/9	Rev. Pawel Tomczyk	Behold the Lamb of God: Mediations on the Mystery of the Eucharist In this conference, the student will be invited to explore theological and pastoral dimensions of the central mystery of the Catholic faith, the Eucharist. We will review the Scriptural foundations of the belief in the Real Presence, explain and affirm the necessity of the Eucharist to the Christian life, and respond to the most common objections to the Church’s teaching on the obligatory nature of Mass attendance on Sunday.
12/6	John Ward	Your Place at the Table with the Holy Family in Advent We will be discussing and drawing connections between the themes of our personal, family-life experiences to that of the Holy Family in an effort to celebrate Advent “together”.
