Fall 2024-- Theology and Philosophy Courses
August 23 - December 17, 2024

Th 101 Sacred Scripture I
Sister Theresa Kelly, FMA

3 credits

Tuesday 12:30-3:15 pm

This course is a survey of the Sacred Writings shared by the Jewish and Christian communities through an examination of selected books from the Old Testament. It presents an overview of the background, formation, methods of interpretation and message of the various types of Old Testament writings. Using the historical-critical method of biblical interpretation, students are given the tools for unlocking the beauty and depth of God's revelation and what it means for us in our everyday lives.

Th 202 Sacramental Theology
Sister Theresa Kelly, FMA

3 credits

Tuesday 9:00-11:45 am

This course is an in-depth study of the scriptural, theological, and historical dimensions of the seven sacraments, including the rite and celebration of each sacrament. It draws upon the insights of patristic, medieval, and modern theologians to uncover the fundamental principles of sacramental theology. The nature of the liturgy, sacred time and space, sacramental symbol and sacramental grace are examined in the context of a Trinitarian, Christological, and Ecclesial framework. Particular attention is paid to the renewed understanding of the role of the sacraments in our ongoing spiritual growth.

Ph 205 Historical Introduction to Philosophy
Dr. Rafael Gonzalez, Ph.D.

3 credits

Tuesday & Thursday 3:30-4:45 pm

This course explores the basic philosophical questions regarding the relationship between the One and the many, the nature of truth and knowledge, the relationship between philosophy and theology, existence and being, the limits of human reason, and the possibility of knowing mystery. It will include major thinkers from ancient medieval, modern, and contemporary philosophy.

Th 204 Spiritual Theology
Mark Tosso

3 credits

Hybrid

This course is a biblical and theological presentation of the activity of the Holy Spirit in the life of the person striving for holiness and a study of the spiritual life. The course explores such topics as the universal call to holiness, the role of the Spirit in the life of believers, grace, virtue, the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit and the journey of conversion. It also provides a historical survey and study of the various spiritual traditions and schools of spirituality of the past and present that enrich the life of the Church. Students will become acquainted with contemporary approaches to spirituality in the ongoing renewal brought about by Vatican Council II.

These courses can be applied to the College's Certificate in Theological Studies
