September 17: Sacred Music

Presenter: Kristen Hoyt is a multifaceted educator, vocalist, accompanist, arranger, music director, and lifelong liturgical musician in the NYC/NJ area. Currently, Kristen is the Choral Director at Morris Catholic High School, Denville and the Director of Music at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist, Paterson.

In St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor.14: 15), he says that we should not only pray with spirit but pray with the mind and sing praise with the spirit and sing praise with the mind.

Join Kristen Hoyt, as she takes a closer look at her life's journey through sacred sounds, sharing the hymns and songs that allow her to give God praise, glory, and honor.

October 15: Sacred Art

Presenter: Sister Geralyn Schmidt, SCC is an artist who strives to reflect God's love and mercy in her art, working with a plethora of media. Sister is the Assistant to the President at ACS and Director of Formation for the Wives of the Diaconate of the diocese of Harrisburg, PA, and a contributor to The Catholic Witness newspaper.

Sr. Geralyn will lead a discussion on the purpose of Sacred Art to deepen our love for God and how God touches the soul through art. Sister will include samples of her artwork.

November 12: Sacred People

Presenter: Rev. Sigmund Peplowski, pastor of St. Cecilia's Parish, Rockaway, NJ enjoys sharing about the lives of the holy women and men of the Church.

Fr. Peplowski will consider the importance and the legacy of some of the holy women and men of the 21st century who are recognized by the Church as guiding lights for our own spiritual journeys.

December 10: Sacred Story

Presenter: Rev. Jared Brogan is the director of the Office of Divine Worship and Master of Ceremonies for the Diocese of Paterson taught Theology at ACS.

The Christmas Story (Infancy Narratives) is part of our sacred story. This presentation will reflect upon the events of that narrative from a sacramental perspective. Like any sacrament, our reflection upon and celebration of the Christmas story can dispose us to holiness!

All are Welcome!
